

House Resolution No. 856

Whereas, Representatives pause to recognize the meritorious accomplishments of an outstanding Missouri student; and

Whereas, Rob Lilly, a sixth grade student at Seven Holy Founders School in St. Louis, Missouri, is to be commended for accumulating more than five hundred points in his school's reading management program while reading more than seventy books with an accuracy rate of ninety-one percent; and

Whereas, Rob Lilly has also distinguished himself by winning Third Place in the Accelerated Reading program in 2002 and by being a Runner-Up in Social Studies for the Sixth Grade Scholar Team; and

Whereas, in addition to his studies at Seven Holy Founders School, Rob serves as an altar boy and enjoys contributing his talent to various team sports; and

Whereas, the success of this great state, the strength of its communities, and the overall vitality of American society depend, in large measure, upon the dedication of young people like Rob Lilly who use their considerable talents and resources to the best of their ability; and

Whereas, Rob Lilly has achieved all of this and more with the loving support and continuous encouragement of his parents, Cynthia and Steven Flynn and Bob Lilly, and his siblings, Ryan Lilly, Kate Flynn, and Pat Flynn:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in congratulating and honoring Rob Lilly for the phenomenal achievements he has realized in reading and in extending to him our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Rob Lilly, as a measure of our esteem for him.
